“ I will truly miss Mr. John Hunt because he was a remarkable man so kind, and compassionate and caring. Every morning he would come to my office and say Good morning Beanie how are you doing so glad to see you. Then we would start his daily walk after breakfast. Then we would discuss what I have Plan for them today and he would say I will be There. He enjoyed playing UNO, Bingo, And Card Bingo that was his favorite game. But he was faithful Bible Study participant he enjoyed the way I taught each lesson. He started read to his Bible every morning, praying every morning. He always called me his Angel. He would come to me with different situations and I would pray with him and he would be alright. I will always cherish all the memories we made here at Palmetto Inn. Rest In peace my Friend...
